

ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE OPERATION OF THE

CORK COUNTY JOINT POLICING COMMITTEE (JPC)

FOR YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 2017

Introduction

This document constitutes the Annual Report of the Cork County Joint Policing Committee (JPC) for the year ended 31st December 2017.

The report has been prepared in the context of the Joint Policing Committee Amended Guidelines 2014 jointly issued by the Minister for Justice and Equality and the Minister for Environment, Community and Local Government and in specific accordance with Section 36(5) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005.

Background

Legislation: Section 36 (1) of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 provides for the establishment of Joint Policing Committees to serve as a forum for consultations, discussions and recommendations on matters affecting the policing of the local authority's administrative area.

Functions of a JPC

The functions of a JPCs set out in section 36(2) of the Garda Síochána Act, state the following:

"The Joint Policing Committee's function is to serve as a forum for consultations, discussions and recommendations on matters affecting the policing of the local authority's administrative area, and in particular to –

(a) keep under review -

- i. the levels and patterns of crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in that area (including the patterns and levels of misuse of alcohol and drugs),and
- ii. the factors underlying and contributing to the levels of crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in the area,

(b) advise the local authority concerned and the Garda Síochána on how they might best perform their functions having regard to the need to do everything feasible to improve the safety and quality of life and to prevent crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour within the area,

(c) arrange and host public meetings concerning matters affecting the policing of the local authority's administrative area,

(d) establish, in consultation with the local Garda superintendent, as the committee considers necessary within specific neighbourhoods of the area, local policing fora to discuss and make recommendations to the committee concerning matters that it is to keep under review under paragraph (a) or on which it is to advise under paragraph (b), in so far as those matters affect their neighbourhoods, and

(e) co-ordinate the activities of local policing fora under paragraph (d) or otherwise.”

Section 37(1) also provides:

“A local authority shall, in performing its functions, have regard to the importance of taking steps to prevent crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour within its area of responsibility.”

Six-Year Joint Policing Committee Strategy 2016-2021

The Cork County Joint Policing Committee Strategic Plan 2016-2012 was completed in June 2016. The strategy sets out a range of priorities, strategic objectives and strategic actions following an analysis of the county and an extensive consultation process. The plan is intended to deliver on opportunities afforded by maximising cooperation between all of the key actors involved in safety and security of the county by working in a coherent, efficient and integrated manner. It is also intended to link with other appropriate plans and strategies in particular the relevant objectives in the Local Economic and Community Plans that serve County Cork.

The Plan is now at implementation stage and an implementation subgroup was formed in 2017 to oversee this stage.

Actions identified in 2017 include:

- Establishment of PPN/JPC Linkage Group – 3 meetings held in 2017
- Property Asset Log Book issued and expanded to include Kerry & Limerick – 20,000 books sold to date

- Community Alert Information sessions ongoing
- Attendance by Gardai at Community Safety Meetings.
- JPC Communications Subgroup formed
- Ongoing operations regarding drink retailers including test purchases and need for staggering of closing times
- High visibility patrols ongoing to prevent crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour.
- Representative of Southern Regional Drugs and Alcohol Task Force Strategic Plan delivered keynote address to Annual JPC Meeting
