Key Achievements of Tipperary JPC in 2019

- At the September meeting a new committee was formed, Cllr Noel Coonan was elected Chair and Cllr Marie Murphy Vice Chair.
- Clarity was sought in relation to the role of the Local Authority as Data Controllers in relation to CCTV systems. This has now been provided.
- Tipperary County Council purchased a property marking machine for use by community within the Carrick-on-Suir Municipal District as a pilot. Tipperary County supported Newport Community Text Alert Committee in the purchase of a property marking machine for use within Nenagh Municipal District.
- Municipal District Safety Committees meetings took place in each of the MD areas. These allowed for discussion in relation to operational safety issues in camera while general feedback/progress from the meetings fed into the JPC on a quarterly basis.
- Presentations in relation to the review of levels and patterns of crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in Co Tipperary were provided at all the JPC meetings and clarity in relation to key Garda Operations and policies were provided across a range of areas.
- Local Link provides a nationwide bus service in rural areas around Ireland. It was established to address rural social exclusion.
 Anthony Moroney made a presentation on Local Link Tipperary. He gave some background to the local retendering process and national structures.
- Tipperary County Council staff updated the JPC on Halloween initiatives.
 - John Hoctor from the Fire Service briefed the JPC on the role of the fire service around Halloween.
 - Carol Creighton from Clonmel Borough District briefed the JPC on the "zombie walk" held in Clonmel. This event is held annually to provide an alternative family activity to bonfires.

- David Corbett from the Environment Section briefed the JPC on waste management and why bonfires are not suitable for the disposal of waste.
- Amy O'Halloran from the Edge Garda Youth Diversion Project in Carrick-on-Suir made a presentation to the JPC on the "Be Sober Be Safe" pilot being rolled out to Junior Certificate students. It aims to reduce the consumption of alcohol on the night of the Junior Certificate Results. The programme has been drawn up with the help of a focus group of older teenagers. These teenagers visit schools in the town and speak with the students about the risks of drinking on results night.
- In November Garda Commissioner Drew Harris made a presentation on the Garda Restructuring Model and New Divisional Boundary to the JPC. JPC members asked the Commissioner to justify the relocation of the Division Headquarters to Ennis.
- Pat Walsh the CEO of Komeer, a private company providing a community alert system, gave a presentation to the Committee on the benefits of their system.
